

He was well enough, for all I could see. He'd built a house in Jamestown. That's the only town there. When my ship sailed, he asked if I'd stop for a word with his family in London.

He was well enough, for all I could see. He'd built a house in Jamestown. That's the only town there. When my ship sailed, he asked if I'd stop for a word with his family in London.

He was well enough, for all I could see. He'd built a house in Jamestown. That's the only town there. When my ship sailed, he asked if I'd stop for a word with his family in London.

He was well enough, for all I could see. He'd built a house in Jamestown. That's the only town there. When my ship sailed, he asked if I'd stop for a word with his family in London.

Homework:

Read Chapter 12-end

- Read chapters 12 to the end of “A Lion to Guard Us”
- Reading Journal: Complete 1 Journal Entry on what you read
- Writing Journal: Choose something to describe. Write 5 sentences telling us about your “thing”. Use your adjectives. Can we figure it out next class from your description?
 - Read aloud as you write.
 - Did you use capitals and periods?
 - Did you add a few adjectives?

Homework:

Read Chapter 12-end

- Read chapters 12 to the end of “A Lion to Guard Us”
- Reading Journal: Complete 1 Journal Entry on what you read
- Writing Journal: Choose something to describe. Write 5 sentences telling us about your “thing”. Use your adjectives. Can we figure it out next class from your description?
 - Read aloud as you write.
 - Did you use capitals and periods?
 - Did you add a few adjectives?

