

She took a step after him,
but Cook's voice called her
back, "A-mam-da." She closed the door. She walked
down the hall and into
the kitchen.

She took a step after
him, but Cook's voice
called her back, "A-mam-da." She closed
the door. She walked
down the hall and into
the kitchen.

She took a step after him,
but Cook's voice called her
back, "A-mam-da." She closed the door. She walked
down the hall and into
the kitchen.

She took a step after
him, but Cook's voice
called her back, "A-
mam-da." She closed
the door. She walked
down the hall and into
the kitchen.

Homework:

- Read the 1st six chapters of "Pocahontas and the Strangers"
  - Complete 1 Journal Entry on what you read
  - Write a short story about "The Thing" you invented.
  - Rewrite our class copywork using added adjectives.
  - Bonus: Find out who/what John Rolfe, Christopher Newport, or the Sea Adventure were in History
- Read aloud as you write.
  - Did you use capitals and periods?
  - Did you add a few adjectives?

Homework:

- Read the 1st six chapters of "Pocahontas and the Strangers"
  - Complete 1 Journal Entry on what you read
  - Write a short story about "The Thing" you invented.
  - Rewrite our class copywork using added adjectives.
  - Bonus: Find out who/what John Rolfe, Christopher Newport, or the Sea Adventure were in History
- Read aloud as you write.
  - Did you use capitals and periods?
  - Did you add a few adjectives?

